

THE BOARD MEETING

To celebrate the success of Acomb Fest by Art of Protest and the RARE Paint Jam, we are hosting this one day festival back at the Carlton Tavern, 140 Acomb Road, York in support of SASH (Safe and Sound Homes).

As part of the event we will place all 9 mural boards that were created at the Paint Jam into a silent auction (not a 'live auction').

The auction goes LIVE Sunday 30th August 10am and ends Sunday 20th September 10am.

HOW TO PLACE A BID

When the auction has launched, email the Lot number and your best bid (over £100) along with your name, address and contact details to sharon@rarecollective.co.uk

WINNING BIDS

The person with the highest bid when the auction ends will receive an email notification along with an invoice for their bid amount.

Buyers are welcome to collect the boards themselves, arrange collection or delivery can be arranged by us if required. We can provide a quote for transportation.

The mural boards are made from heavy marine ply and come in 2 horizontal pieces.

Total size 8ft x 8ft (2.4 x 2.4m) approx.

If you have any questions or would like a quote for delivery prior to bidding please email us.

There will be a 'live' art auction at the event at 4pm featuring art by the Paint Jam artists.

Website
www.boxxhead.co.uk

BOXXHEAD is an award winning York based artist who creates bright and bold artwork using screen print, spray paint and everything in between.

Known for his love of square-headed beasts, he pulls influence from Neo-Expressionism and Surrealism as he wrestles with the complexity of human identity.

Using child-like naivety, Boxxhead communicates mature provocative narratives that slice through social and political hypocrisy in an attempt to gain a better understading of the world we live in today.

www.hazardone.co.uk

Harriet Wood aka HazardOne is an artist from York who has been recognised as one of the Top 5 female graffiti artists in the UK (The Guardian) and the Top women in street art worldwide (The Huffington Post). She combines rich colour palettes with illumination and modern-age glitch effects to create striking portraits using traditional freehand graffiti techniques.

From a residency in Barcelona, 7-storey self directed mural project funded by the Arts Council, a community project on the Arizona-Mexico border, British Embassy Berlin to the 79th Floor of 3 World Trade Centre, New York and cultural projects for the British Council in Brazil and Colombia. Her work takes her all over the planet.

LADY MKEI

Lady Mkei creates Wierdos, Baddies and Staunch characters to construct colourful collisions of feminist expression and nostalgia.

Based in Yorkshire, she makes shiny, vibrant stickers, paste ups and paintings of dolls, toys, final girls, wrestlers, musicians and superwomen. All of which are displayed on walls in the UK, Europe, USA and South America.

LOT 4

LINCOLN LIGHTFOOT

Lincoln Lightfoot is York based artist/illustrator that has built up a reputation across Yorkshire and the North East. His work explores surreal concepts reminiscent of 1950's-60s B-Movie Poster Art.

Lincoln's work captures a surreal twist on well-known settings often depicting dinosaurs, UFOs and other unusual creature characters.

Inspired by iconic architecture and the absurdity of science fiction comedy disaster film, his work offers a Monty Python style escapism from everyday problems. The imagery taps into the present condition of fear that our news media and politicians perpetuate in a post Covid-I9 world.

LISKBOT

Instagram

@liskbot

liskbot.bigcartel.com

Liskbot is a robot-themed street artist based out of Birmingham, UK.

Using traditional graffiti methods, Liskbot has made it his mission to spread his robot army across the UK. Purposely leaving them in busy public urban spaces, accompanied by a warning or cautionary tale for those humans who come across their path.

Sharon McDonagh, aka spAm, is a York based multidisciplinary artist, event organiser and founder member of RARE Collective.

Sharon's work is unapologetically personal, drawing inspiration from lived experience and whatever demands to be seen or heard. The tone? Often humorous, occasionally dark, and unafraid to get a little furious.

Working across spray paint, plaster, acrylic and ink, Sharon's creations include murals, mixed media paintings and printmaking. Each piece is a confrontation, an invitation to feel, reflect and rebel.
